You're waiting for trial. That's on Wednesday.
for the first time.

I'm watching Benny and Jon. After seeing you I also messaged Timothy Alcedo like you asked. ☺ Today it felt like a dream again. I didn't know what to do so I went to the store. I got 1lb of dolmas, 8 oz ^a ~~bag~~ ^{bag} of bakiganosh, and some pesto pasta with the artichokes and bellpeppers.

I got 3 Arizona Iced Teas. That's my favorite summer/road trip beverage after water. Then I got in the car and didn't know what to do. So I went up Skinner's Pk. Had some dolmas but I wasn't super hungry. Oh I also got some sardines! 3 cans. 2 in olive oil & one in mustard.
For dessert I had too much ice cream, took a nap, then woke up and finished a 2 day melted Cinnabon cinnamon roll that's been hiding in my purse lol. Snax...

there was this guy, Yoshi, in a blue Stoney Balogna van who was coloring with Chalk all over the sidewalk. I'll add some printed photos. I think I can send 10x per envelope. His work looked so happy and joyful. On either side of the van, two separate groups of ppl were fighting. It was so awful I almost left before coloring the sidewalk. Yoshi played some music to drown them out, I colored and smoked about it.
He said when he was in jail, he looked out the window and saw a

a year, the art on the

MONDAY

5/8 10:55pm

I couldn't find Archer just now and I started to have a panic attack.
 I was terrified he ate a spider and died in the HVAC system.

He was outside.

I loved seeing you today. I'm really hoping you get to stay in town so I can visit you still. Tomorrow we find out what's going with your trial.

Hey. I'm sorry I hurt
 you. I'd really like to talk to you about it.
 As beautiful as our time was, I think it was as equally hard. It was a very challenging adventure. I'll never forget the experience.
 I'm sorry I have a bad memory. I've been trying really hard to remember the important things.
 It's hard when everything is equally important.

I'm Sorry Spencer.
 I'm working on it.

5/9 Tues

Hey honey. You were kind & grilly. I'm so sorry.

I'll ~~first~~ visit you tomorrow. Hopefully I can keep in touch with you as much as possible.

We both have so much going on. I'm just grateful we're both safe and dry at night.

I wish we were still camping. Our little car home.

I wanted to fill this last page with pretty things.

I just want you to have something to open at this point. I'm sorry it took me so long to get this to you.

I'll do my best to be here for you as much as I can be. I know I'm forgetful but Spencer, I'll never forget you.

You are in my heart forever. We created the most beautiful magic together. The magic breath that we made is unforgettable. I will always want to kiss your face. I miss you so so much.

With the love and light in my heart and soul,
I send this letter to you,

BIBLES

We have many Bibles available for you to use while you are here. If there is a certain version or translation you are hoping for, let us know, and IF we have it on hand, we will provide it. We can supply Recovery Bibles for those who would appreciate the extra side notes for addiction issues. Also, we have the New Testament New Believer's Bibles that have many notes and explanations.

Any of the Gideon's Bibles are available for you while here at the Lane County Jail. These are the brown pocket-sized New Testament Bibles and the full-size Blue Gideon Bibles, which include both the Old and New Testaments. If none of these are available in your area let us know.

You also have an opportunity to go through a series of Bible Study Courses, provided by Gospel Echoes. There are 8 Courses available, and you may request up to 2 courses at a time. These have really blessed so many of the AIC's, starting with the 1st course, and many have completed all 8.

If you want to do these, request them by a kite to the Chaplain. After you do each study, complete the removable center section, pull it out and return it to us in a kite. We will send these in to Gospel Echoes volunteers, who will respond to your questions and will also be praying for you.

If you are transferred before completing the Course series, you can still finish it by corresponding directly with Gospel Echoes, and letting them know of your change of address*.

Gospel Echoes' Address is: Gospel Echoes PO Box 255, Tangent, OR 97389.

You can earn your very own Award Bible with Your Name on it in Gold, after you have completed the first 4 courses. If you do complete the first 4 courses, but will not be released from here, Gospel Echoes can hold your Award Bible for you, until you arrive at your final prison destination.

► For those going on to prison who'd like a Large Print Recovery Bible , in English or Spanish, write:

Tyndale House Publishers
Inside Journal Bible
351 Executive Drive
Carol Stream, IL 60188

*Be sure to include your Name, prison ID number, Institution and Address, and let them know if you would prefer English or Spanish. We recommend recording this contact information (and the Gospel Echoes' contact info) in the Little Red Address Book, which we understand you are allowed to take with you when you are either transferred or released.

If somehow you lose this information, you can always write us, c/o the Chaplain's Office here at: Lane County Adult Corrections, 101 West 5th Street, Eugene, OR 97401, or you can write to us at: Jubilee Ministries, PO Box 935, Eugene, OR 97440.

By the way... The BIBLE is the BIGGEST Seller of ALL TIME! We encourage you to always Pray before you read it, asking the Lord to explain it to you – He is the Author, and He will certainly do it!

my doctoral thesis - but why try to explain it - I ^{won't, shouldn't} ~~can't~~. And I wanted to tell, if I were to do such a thing. But the denial confirmed my ^{to not testify} notion how can I stay steadfast to my decision? and my knowledge of it! Conditioned into a bit of paranoia
- is it all a mock trial? Aren't they all? compared to such bigger issues... which remain in the dark, silenced, conditioned into a lack of hope - why try? just glad to have gone - for reasons which only I need to know, and not for anyone else. What convinced me otherwise - to go back & forth between the idea I should testify or not, I had already made my decision not to and so... STICK w/ IT - for the reasons you KNOW and have already fallen victim to - confirmation Bias, stereotype threat, golem effect even while writing this...

(5/4) after speaking w/ her I feel like crying. at first it just hurt - maybe she actually really does not want me to go. cts bad for anyone to go. My story is literally UNBELIEVABLE, and to me this isn't / shouldn't be about me, ^{no} I tried to start a ministry, I tried to educate about HUGER THINGS we should all feel guilty about, ⁽⁵⁾ the bible is a f'd up program? Once you know in your heart you don't need to prove it to anyone, ⁽⁶⁾ this place has conditioned me to a 5th grade level (can't even use half my brain / education / learned people), ^(4.5) the people before trial, if people don't believe in GOD (DA already trying to prove Malice evil intent based on prior), ... I spoke alot w/ her and passionately and told her it felt like I hurt her ~~et~~ everything this is so much bigger than me just me and much more beautiful people than me have suffered far worse fates than I. I forgot to write about how Swope said "hope that wasn't your daughter on TV who spent 3-days trying to wake up her mom who OD'd... when someone finally came - I wanna go to Grandmas" (5/6) well, that went better than expected. I'm "unpredictable" or just sensitive to other peoples' thoughts / observations (observer effect) / confirmation bias / self-fulfilling prophecy / stereotype threat / golem effect... "my thoughts are not your thoughts" (Cassandra) and when in a polluted room - it takes an effort for a receptive / open-minded / empathetic / sensitive to lead the others away and out of the collective unconscious in authentic, adaptable, considerate, responsive and responsible (conscious) collective actions. Like Anne Frank notes in her diary it is difficult to talk about something other than the "round about" (loop / artificial repetitive and damaging, out of date norm). Human-nature is not perfect -

The reason I bring all this up is because I do not believe I was blessed w/ the love or attention to be the most sensitive, compassionate child and actually - many (almost all? except the <1%? disease/genetic variability/potential for mutation/~~or~~ genetic abnormality") are born w/ the utmost sensitivity and love (so long as their "hatching/womb period" was not adulterated/polluted ~~such as~~ which is now ~~impossibly~~ the new norm (rampant pollution on many levels and dimensions)) STILL, we reduce our sensitivity as a matter of self-preservation from an otherwise completely unnatural condition of confinement/civilization. (8/6) - outside the courtroom reference it and had spoken w/ her about the story of a god being tortured (eyes pecked out by crows?) by the other gods for bringing fire to the people on earth - forgot his name - she researched to assist memory - the following day After writing all this I have determined its not that important... still I continue: I asked her if she remembered and she was like "what? did you say 'put me in?'" which made me laugh/smile "a bit Freudian, but I like your thinking", mhm she is cute. // Damn, short skinhead wanted to fight - for literally letting him on the Tablet & during the time I was assigned to (lpm) "I'm not gonna fight was wondering what it meant until this moment - maybe ~~these~~ the "grogg" white supremacist skin then another one tried to stand up for him before I got louder and explained how mentally retarded he was being. "I'm not gonna fight but I'm gonna write" I heard them mock and snicker

 - yeah, its called anger management you dumb fucks - you could use it and some basic could or can comprehend his idiocy ^(PID - apology) and it really pissed me off - I didn't back down they 5/6) - This place just cultivates a violent attitude its super unhealthy for me to feel a need for vengeance or "justice" or some sense of balance, meaning reason... but WWJD? The preacher fought... he couldn't resist - in those ^{of breath} intense moments I don't even think anyones in their ^{body} so hitting each other is the only way to ground out. Already had a headache today, probably gonna miss my phone video calls w/ Natalie which is the saddest part and the reason for my irritation, thinking they took an ear plug - fuck. Love hearing their bullshit... damn fill me w/ energy/adrenaline, Ridiculous. Well it was really nice the cops/guards gave some earplugs for me. Its interesting to note that just the other day - when the guards again returned me to jail quickly for a quick "med evaluation", took almost an hour just to get blood pressure and blood sugar. They spoke of another deputy getting punched to which I remarked - "many in here are literally ^{less than} apes, incapable of meta cognition so they take damn perceived insult (not even comprehending the words) and respond reflexively/automatically w/ physical aggression - maybe they are completely unable to think for themselves

- and poverty does decrease brain size when the most basic needs aren't met..." I actually remember seeing these 2 approach each other in the hall, an inmate girl I saw automatically step forward in response to a Deputy's aggressive orders - to which the Deputy responded w/ a step closer in like fashion...
The Deputy appeared to hear what I said and also the day before when "chided" for inability to focus, ~~low~~ blood sugar reference and the fact I can't receive another apple or (5/6) - I was told to just ask him for help - I¹⁰ said "deputies have ignored or denied my requests so often I don't even ask for help I talk to my attorney" and then I explained the effects of learned helplessness... interestingly I heard one of the deputies some time later, as we were leaving the jail to return say: "bring it on, I know quite a lot of attorneys myself" and I fantasized somehow my comment about a need for a 3rd party medical watchdog, which I spoke w/ Allison about, hopefully materializing before my eyes, and that there could have been some concern or legal threat to the deputy in charge of my transport. Like the judge said, this is MY Trial, and every effort should be made to keep me at optimal/optimum performance and mental capacity (which actually the conditions of confinement and treatment from deputies does the opposite)

/// (5/7) - first thing when I woke up he apologized to me - now I'm sad as fuck - I told him I forgave him last night and shouldn't have been upset about something so petty, why would that matter when I've already lost so much, family & friends. And him too, when he told me he just did 15 years my heart broke in @ 19 and out @ 34, and what good did this system do for him? probably made him more gangster, reflexive and that's just jail house lingo, all're brothers he acknowledged and said he understood I was doing others a favor by letting on @ my time... /// They take everything from us - force us into monkhood or non-material spirituality but w/out any education or understanding or any real compassion towards us they neglect the very reason we're here and the New Testament and modern science and simply Humanity -

(5/7) Damn I think white people most evil race that exists - I guess everyone's known that though for some time... // it seems unfortunate to me and a reason I don't or didn't look people in the eyes is because I really love people I look in the eyes and I can't stare at them in hatred, so when I refuse I contact it's because they don't deserve it (in my eyes) and especially now, it's kinda sad? Really sad. Weirderly sad that white people are so ignorant to their crimes against Humanity for so long. (Obviously not all, for some have been blessed w/ eyes ears and heart, and privileged w/ education to know the truth) it's quite sad - and I'm excited to leave this dorm, for a star witness shows an active desire to work against me - for two days refusing my phone calls (refusing to alert me of being called by Natalie for video chat) & a belief that might help me overcome this is the assumption that maybe she actually did not call me and also - or more importantly why would this matter after all that I've lost? Tomorrow, if she tells me she did call, I'm going to request to leave this dorm, solo cell sounds so much better than being surrounded by such fake assholes - RAMPANT PSEUDO COMMUNITY, especially here, but everywhere in America right now, looking forward to calling her tomorrow morning - her voice helps me so much. Actually just realized I can use it right now (thanks to Swope) wanna call my mama and Natalie (to verify this early) // The real Brothers Burden - to heal the savage white man's false burden and to save the white race from their evils, very difficult to take on their Bullshit projections and constant deceptions // one thing I immediately regretted but then realized was initially saying a trial, this happened 4 years ago (instead of 5 (2023-2018) = 5) but in actuality May 3rd 2023 - November 16 2018 is ^{about} 2 weeks closer to 4 years than it is to 5 (4 years 5 months & 2 weeks) (anything over 4 years and 6 months is closer to 5, so I rounded well, I think she should Knight me instead of keep me in a cage watching my movements like I'm some animal to be studied (how cruel) if the mormons want to speak to Joseph they could just ask me. The logic to my argument for self defense is not only sound But respectable in regards to my grandmother as well. As a past chaplain/minister said "you not only have the right, but the Duty to protect yourself and others from harm" But how can the Brits or any 1st World Country be respectable enough to Knight me? I should be KNIGHTING THEM if they change their immoral ways...

(5/11) was moved from N-03 (EAX) to -11 (EAX) an hour or so before court, which will resume on 5/16, I think I saw Allison write Stuit in re: to reading my notes on the court proceeding. I remember a dream I had before I spoke to Allison about the Ball python dream - it was a dream w/ her speaking to someone about how my memory of ^{the} dreams ^{after trial} confirms I didn't lose consciousness and anyways it appears they are testing my memory/reactions on a daily basis.. so much for the Right to not be experimented on.. and all our other "rights". The fact that the judge had an interest in me waiving my right to a jury considering the aggravating circumstances - implied that the Judge, and Allison and DA are all on the "same team" which before I had small reason to believe so, in regards to Amy Couter & Sharon & whoever that guy was before. wow - the real Deep State examined from the inside out - how prophetic. HEESE ☺.. So in preparation for meeting w/ Allison tomorrow.. I'm unsure why exactly we need to meet (other than she's someone I like to talk to and they want someone close to me, to hear what I have to say... HA HA (like her laugh when I said "atleast your good, Public Defender" and maybe my believing in her was all she really needed to escape her ties to the immorality of this deep state.) // "first name?" "Barrett" "Perfect", yes, it irritates me, after telling Allison, I expect they'll prod me more. "The guards of the holocaust. You need Jesus. I forgive you. Have you seen my YOUTUBE?" I also have a ministry. - I need to say and remember / be the bigger man, I forgive you, for you know not what you do, and should probably FAST these demons away w/ there polluted drugged food. also I should write the same to mental health, but request name change on supplies.

"do I want to waive my right to jury consider aggravating circumstances?"

(5/12) inspiring Dr phil episode on during my Day room (330-439m) 18
"The prosecutors job is to deliver justice!" "served years for a crime they didnt commit!" (5/13) I guess I really dont care - atleast thats what this place has trained me to believe. I thought I cared about so many things but after so long w/ out, I realize I'm just fine.
Everyone starts off caring so much, but the system and distrust of everyone else
- the inability to share what truly matters leaves you realizing nothing truly matters not in here. A dream McKenna wearing grannies ring I asked where Luei was and she said she was dead. I didnt believe her, they would've served me a death certificate and even if they did, I would just know its probably apart of a bigger conspiracy. Like, if they told me my Mom or Dad died I wouldn't believe that either, just an attempt to prick or prod me, like the guards continuously calling me by my first name, like being called nigger or slave; you dont know me, so stop pretending to, when you're stuck in a place like this you cant care, so why try - they force monkhood or detached manhood - I'll never be the same. I guess I'm stronger this way to play their game "I'm better than you at not caring" Shame no blame just sitting keeping warm by the Flame.

(5/13) So if I don't care, why should I call 19 my pseudo family out on their bull-shit, why ever try to protest? They never cared about me or my work - I was speaking directly to them and they just dismissed it as "scientifically" turning it around on me - no, he's the one who doesn't care!" Oh yeah - that doesn't make sense, if I didn't care I wouldn't have made any extra efforts at art or anything: Someone who doesn't care, wouldn't care enough to say that or inform others. Oh well, now I'm just like the rest of you non-dreamers, non-believers, empty automatons w/out any intrinsic motivation soul less Nation (yet I know a few will persist and continue to resist despite this sick notion to fight for humanity and turn the Ocean of our collective emotion: So that we can see. Oh, they're just trying to antagonize me. Oh well, join the head of sheep too lost to wheeple This is an enlightenment? to not care, not feel? So bleak and colorless, an empty grey field. If I don't believe you, then you can't hurt me - thanks for your power heartless collective generation.
But at least I know the truth, that caring is more glaring than not sharing w/ you But for now and this time I'll hibernate away to forget of fun or how to play.

 b) family - trauma (raped by someone they loved) actually desire and fantasize about being raped and are/can be equally responsible (or even more so) for instigating /inciting/calling-forth a man to do such a thing... Now how do we resolve this major issue.
 Well, first we have to all talk about it; educate people on this

John 6:31, Rev 2:17

Obviously there will be a [non-christian] desire for vengeance and punishment - but does that solve an issue (that likely stems from those very traits and lack of exposure to true love) the first thing that comes to mind is a complete reprogramming - such heavy dose of psychedelics to plasticize/mold the brain and train new healthy family relations - or to put them in another realm where this love is typical a whole babylonian city; w/ their own babylonian law/enforcers etc (Kiddo, pretty much the same as we have now - so I'm suggesting the creation of a paradise for innocent / non generationally traumatized (or those willing to submit to reprogramming in order to have / learn conscientiousness / consciousness / manners / respect / consent / higher order meta-cognition, reflex control))

ATLANTIS RISING (in stark contrast to the animalizing, current survival of the "fittest" adulterating and love-less current jail system (where many come out worse (more animal (in the negative human animal sense (I want to make clear the human animal is the worst animal of all, but many/all other animals are acting in nature as nature intended))))

(5/15) Why is it so important to vent to people about what you hate? I think hatred can be self-suffocating and bad for your heart. Ventilation is essential for heart health - but w/out anyone to vent to I take the liberty to masturbate because it does help and apparently all violence and rage is just suppressed sexuality (AKA Sexual tension) // "Sorry folks, he gave himself a heart attack from chronic masturbation," or actually from lack thereof, we do no science or love, we just like to demonize our fellow humans; an honest mormon PSA. I to make up for our own insufficiency/inferiority/shadow-complex/racism/Bias/lack-of-empathy/love/christianity "yeah, we all believe he came to forgive us but we don't live like it, actually our church just makes a lot of money off it, we deny god's gift of measurement/proportions and logic/science in order to fulfill our own agenda - even though real christian-science proves everything I speak of --- // so, now they're playing w/ my dreams? I got to lay in the sun for a few minutes "is that your spirit?" "yep" Observer Anne confirmed, later in my cell I cried about remembering walks w/ Luci through the forest and how it calmed/rocked her to sleep. just one or two laps around the fen. I hope Nature is something she always remembers & feels @ home in.

It's way easier

We'd rather SCARE people w/ eternal damnation than show them truth w/ christ love & compassion or according to Don Gregory they always were...

Then I was entering the house from the Bootroom @ 210 in (in my map dream) and Anne said; "the smoke from the chimneys is hanging real low" - "is that high or low density?" - "it's not as low as 5" air - I used to remember all these facts but - but now, you know what's in your heart is true?"

(She cut me off - w) a line a gave Allison, when I was refusing to testify the night before 5/5) "Now, I just go out and see for myself!" - and Anne began writing...

Hypnotized from birth, never trained to see for oneself, Trust or Hypnotism and Blind to betrayal. How Deviants use our inclination/need to Trust against us (to doubt their honesty/goodness is too much cognitive dissonance and a very hard pill for the privileged on Pink Cloud to swallow). My rebirth on psychedelics "you must be awakening, 60's civil rights and Human Rights peace efforts. People (Americans something well known to the rest of the world.) Americans unable to grasp the true gravity of the situation - too much cognitive dissonance and lack of education, a whole country hypnotized "in God we trust" on money! It seems I'm really feeling the Brother's Burden, to honestly believe my own brother has been led down the wrong path (and who knows how many others?) by misunderstanding my own artwork, and really believing that I don't care. He is especially susceptible because he was not exposed to love in the same way as I, my parents failed him and it's apparent. And for him to take this knowledge and abuse it, is my responsibility - and so my mission truly begins w/ him, to inspire him to community service, to Jesus/love, baptism and to fully -

Spent 1-2 hours reading out loud, there as a test to see if it would quiet thoughts, I did not identify w/ (speaking to a congregation of spirits/viewers/judges) and it did, coming away from it was to experience a silence should have been a relief but the silence made me really sorrowful & feel alone (like I had mentioned about hiking the PCT even amidst such beauty & which I did mention - becoming everything on HBW seeds followed by "a split" and being held by the Universal Mother in Love) and if Quakers really believe being alone brings one closer to God (it is a big difference, being alone in a cell vs. being alone in Nature) then maybe that is true to the (5/16) extent that god is incredibly lonely. This sorrow of loneliness is so depressing for the breath/spirit I am sure many would (and many have) choose to not bear it. It is not often or natural? for a human, to be alone. In my idealistic spiritual adventure towards enlightenment, surmounting this obstacle would be ultimately freeing (for if I no longer rely on anyone else, would they ever be able to control/manipulate/shame/judge/coerce me?) But whether it becomes an opening of the heart or a hardening of it, causes me to fear how much damage such conditions of confinement can do to one w/ no educated or compassionate background... "left to their own devices" we could (and are) easily creating more detached/lost/disassociated children. And THIS MUST BE WHY Jesus came to speak about forgiveness, love, compassion and to not be put a muzzle on it or a weak band-aid, but to heal the disease at its root cause: a lack of love. (5/17) Was in shock-good mood after Mr. Knight won his motion for a quittal @ trial due to a judgment not being proof of me being on probation (technically just hearsay - unless a P.O. could confirm I actually was) then after talking on phone w/ Natalie I'm filled w/ doubt...  attempt she'll come to court tomorrow...

(5/17) the fact someone walked in w/ a video camera chest mount as I handed off my letter for Natalie was kinda cool... hope she gets it. Even though speaking w/ her can fill me w/ fear and doubt and confusion I still want to, and escaped those emotions not by reading the bible (acts 15: 24-29 & Psalm 59 which I "channeled") but by reading: "War Chiefs" QUANA PARKER" by Bill Dugan and remembering that the struggle I'm going through now is nothing new to so many other oppressed parties/groups/cultures.. "channeled" p.191... "mother?" and tears well up after reading the passage - but just that section that one word & I felt the calamity, the heart ache before... and I tried to call my mom, she didn't answer today I thought maybe I made her upset on Mother's day from my criticism @ my dad but it wasn't @ her and I'dk if she got it completely my feelings about my family ignoring my art and serious concerns/worries... and now the chest camera dude came back making sure I wasn't suicidal from a rope in my kite to medical: "I have an itchy mole maybe I have skin cancer - that'd be pretty cool - its pretty boring in here" I told him I grew up in a sarcastic family and showed him my itchy mole (same spot I poked my dad... I left abdomen ~ 1 inch from belly button

This Notice is important. Read it carefully. It provides you with specific information about your case, your attorney, your court case number, the offense you are charged with, and the date and time of any pending court appearance.

You Have Rights. You need to be aware of your rights and assert them. You have the right to remain silent, to refuse to answer questions or to refuse to talk about your case. Assert that right. Always ask for a lawyer. If the police try to question you, tell them you do not want to talk to them unless your lawyer is there with you. This is your right and it is important to your case. Never give permission or approval to the police for a search of your home, your vehicle or yourself. If they search even after you tell them they may not, do not physically resist. Be sure that the police know you have not given your permission. Do not talk about your case with family, friends or fellow prisoners. They can be forced to testify against you later and this can hurt your case. You should only talk about your case with your attorney or an investigator or legal assistant who works for the Public Defender.

If You Change Your Address or Telephone Number. You must call the Public Defender office immediately (541-484-2611) and report any new address or telephone number. It is very important that your attorney be able to reach you to keep you informed about your case and about upcoming court appearances.

You Have a Voluntary Court Appearance Scheduled. You are scheduled to appear in court on the date and time shown on this notice. You must appear then or a warrant will be issued for your arrest. As your attorney prepares for your case, our office will be talking to witnesses, investigating the circumstances surrounding your case and gathering evidence to be used on your behalf. We may also contact you for more information if we need it. If you believe you have information that you think might be useful, or if you have questions about your case, you can call our office and talk with your attorney.

If you do not appear in court on the required date and time, you could also be charged with the crime of Failure to Appear.

If you have questions about this notice or your case, please contact your attorney as soon as possible at 541-484-2611, Ext.135.

5/18 - [I heard Oregon Prisons don't have PC and I or honestly fear for my life after publishing multiple criticisms against the State and Gangs (White Supremacist and others) ^{especially}] even if the judge doesn't take my concerns seriously at least it will be on the record and when my daughter grows up she can say/see for herself, "wow my dad really did care a lot, this is disgusting" (I was speaking on the states murder of me being disgusting but maybe my over-caring could be perceived (w/ my STRANGE art) as "disgusting" regardless of its reception the sheer quantity of my productions outweighs any error in quality. // These thoughts interrupting my process deciding to correct a verse on my "end the schism" from matt 12:10? to 16:4 but what distracted me was 1st "Modern Slavery" (on the mormons are beginning to feel guilty - I only think this now, but the next distracting thought was "guilty" - which the viewers are, but were hoping me to be? to distract from their own responsibility) the reason I know, is because this is the same feeling as when I can actually prove I'm being watched + but I assume a modern intelligence agency would have sophisticated, undetectable monitoring equipment for someone they [projecting] think is a terrorist (they are the real terrorist, time will show, truth endures the test of time. "I'm watching the intelligence agencies w/ a more critical eye than they could ever watch me" // very much enjoying the most poetic and vividly described heart-felt novel: "Wan chieft QUANAH PARKER" made it to pg 55 despite distracting observers effect.. and they're trying to use my own art → against me: LOL 😊

5/18 - talking about asking Natalie to marry me, polysexual amorality, pansexuality, not identifying w/ Sex, love is not always sexual. such as before we reach puberty - and identifying w/ that creative spirit instead of the very polluted/sad/lost generation who have been so neglected and w/ out higher motivation/interests/self-mastery (due to poor, abusive parenting and government styles) that they at a lower state of consciousness  cannot distinguish between the two. To remind and ensure we do not infect (needlessly train addiction) but build authentic community and "higher order" personalities.
Now it may be that some will completely resist any attempts and wish to identify w/ animality and forego all creative, intrinsic endeavor. But this is a natural resistance to authority, exercising free-will/choice and to educate on the employment of reversal psychology as well as the benefits and greater freedoms that come w/ self-mastery (ultimately giving you more free-will and less chance for control/brain-washing/enslavement) // What is really bothering me right now is Allison's blatant disregard and obvious conflict of interests, and its weird I can continue to give lip service to someone who is obviously not listening/believing or looking for something else. To give them my attention w/ out words, to put them back in a mode of self reflection instead of deceptive projection for their own personal development. But their resistance & disbelief is to be expected as well as using this scene letting all be fair

Revised 09/09

5/18 at least I am being fair by letting all 32 use and have access to this scene of consciousness and development and reception or deflection instead of the few and overwhelming atheists who wish and have succeeded in dominating and manipulating the world ^{resources} and others w/ it; selfishly and grotesquely. // a problem w/ not being able to "interrupt" is that by the time someone is done talking they have literally stolen all the air out of the room, literally taking your breath away, and if it is perceived they are disagreeing or creating a false narrative where you are the enemy or to blame, w/ a lack of breath/spirit you are helpless and maybe trained like I was to merely "accept the punishment" regardless of its benefit/outcome/helpfulness and regardless of your true part in the matter or deserving of it. if I am not allowed to interrupt a lengthy dialogue I have unanswered questions, do not retain as much or learn as much if I am unable to partake. Now it is assumed that trouble makers (who are actually setting the world narrative and dialogue) mischievously and w/ ill intent interrupt as a matter of distraction, deflection and denial of responsibility. So long as real accountability is considered and it is apparent that both parties are willing to take responsibility (win-win) then there should be no rush or personal grudges/emotions to alter earnest rational problem solving.

3. Make sure the form is typed or neatly written.
4. You must tell the truth and sign the form. If you make a false statement of a material fact, you may be prosecuted for perjury.
5. Answer all the questions. You do not need to cite law. You may submit additional pages if necessary. If your account exceeds $ _____, you must pay the filing fee.

(5/19) Especially tormenting because one cannot help but love 34 and worry for their Mother's health & well-being - But I cannot fully forgive someone who denies my genuine concerns and disturbed realizations witnessing such blatant disregard and criminal behavior - to take granny's old money, w/out a will, w/out notifying her brothers, to be the executioner / "executor" of someone who loved their community and had so much more to say than she was ever willing to listen to - "granny just talked allot" and the rage @ her uneducated white privilege in regards to the purpose of jails/prisons: "for people who don't want to change" and how her neglect to change her lifestyle is one of the greatest issues facing the US and the environment (global) and how obviously supportive I am of change (tattoo'd on my foot) and how adaptable and many lifestyles I have lived. I wish my parents would serve time in Prison for killing my grandma even though I know that wouldn't actually help. But how heart wrenching and "bipolar" it is this similar to perceived old "white man's burden" to love someone you hate so much for their evil, yet socially acceptable behavior. And so I consult the New Testament for help to end this schism! How do you confront someone unwilling to listen? Chamelel: Acts 8:33 in his humiliation justice was denied to him. (Acts 8:32 - like a sheep he was led to the slaughter and like a lamb before its shearer is silent, so he opens not his mouth) (Is 53:7 (is the original) but this doesn't make it any easier, actually it fills me w/ more rage that like our savior, so many others are denied true justice and we are instructed to forgive them & turn the other cheek? ^{SPIRIT} God responds w/ - Patience son, this battle has been waging for all time and is closer than ever to reaching an end. 1 John 5:6 the Spirit is Truth.

(5/20) woke up from a nap by the "door unlocking" deputy to in regards to my kite of not getting day room yesterday, to which the essentially denied responsibility - they it "appeared" closed my own door, but actually I was taking a nap and assumed they just didn't wake me - been missing items in breakfast like Benton County (apples past 2 days) said I forgive you for the apples.

POST-CONVICTION RELIEF

138.510 Persons who may file petition for relief; time limit. (1) Except as otherwise provided in ORS 138.540, any person convicted of a crime under the laws of this state may file a petition for post-conviction relief pursuant to ORS 138.510 to 138.680.

(2) A petition for post-conviction relief may be filed by one person on behalf of another person who has been convicted of aggravated murder and sentenced to death only if the person filing the petition demonstrates by a preponderance of the evidence that:

(a) The person sentenced to death is unable to file a petition on the person's own behalf due to mental incapacity or because of a lack of access to the court; and

(b) The person filing the petition has a significant relationship with the person sentenced to death and will act in the best interest of the person on whose behalf the petition is being filed.

(3) A petition pursuant to ORS 138.510 to 138.680 must be filed within two years of the following, unless the court on hearing a subsequent petition finds grounds for relief asserted which could not reasonably have been raised in the original or amended petition:

(a) If no appeal is taken, the date the judgment or order on the conviction was entered in the register.

(b) If an appeal is taken, the date the appeal is final in the Oregon appellate courts.

(c) If a petition for certiorari to the United States Supreme Court is filed, the later of:

(A) The date of denial of certiorari, if the petition is denied; or

(B) The date of entry of a final state court judgment following remand from the United States Supreme Court.

(4) A one-year filing period shall apply retroactively to petitions filed by persons whose convictions and appeals became final before August 5, 1989, and any such petitions must be filed within one year after November 4, 1993. A person whose post-conviction petition was dismissed prior to November 4, 1993, cannot file another post-conviction petition involving the same case.

(5) The remedy created by ORS 138.510 to 138.680 is available to persons convicted before May 26, 1959.

(6) In any post-conviction proceeding pending in the courts of this state on May 26, 1959, the person seeking relief in such proceedings shall be allowed to amend the action and seek relief under ORS 138.510 to 138.680. If such person does not choose to amend the action in this manner, the law existing prior to May 26, 1959, shall govern the case. [1959 c.636 §§1,16,17; 1989 c.1053 §18; 1993 c.517 §1; 1999 c.1055 §7; 2007 c.292 §1]

138.520 Relief which court may grant. The relief which a court may grant or order under ORS 138.510 to 138.680 shall include release, new trial, modification of sentence, and such other relief as may be proper and just. The court may also make supplementary orders to the relief granted, concerning such matters as rearraignment, retrial, custody and release on security. [1959 c.636 §2; 1999 c.1051 §258]

138.525 Dismissal of meritless petition. (1) The court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the defendant, enter a judgment denying a meritless petition brought under ORS 138.510 to 138.680.

(2) As used in this section, "meritless petition" means one that, when liberally construed, fails to state a claim upon which post-conviction relief may be granted.

(3) Notwithstanding ORS 138.650, a judgment dismissing a meritless petition is not appealable.

(4) A dismissal is without prejudice if a meritless petition is dismissed without a hearing and the petitioner was not represented by counsel. [1993 c.517 §3]

Congress OKs prison-repair mandate

Michael R. Sisak
 ASSOCIATED PRESS

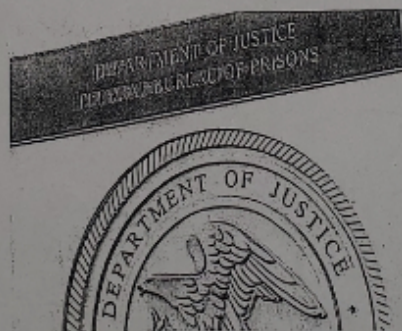

WASHINGTON — Congress has passed legislation requiring the federal Bureau of Prisons to overhaul failing and outdated security systems in the wake of rampant staff sexual abuse, inmate escapes and high-profile deaths.

The bill, approved by the House on a voice vote Wednesday, would force the troubled prison agency to fix broken surveillance cameras and install new ones, providing upgraded tools to fight and investigate staff misconduct, inmate violence and other problems.

The Prison Camera Reform Act, which the Senate passed last year, now goes to President Joe Biden to be signed into law.

"Broken prison camera systems are enabling corruption, misconduct and abuse," said the bill's sponsor, Sen. Jon Ossoff, D-Ga. He has led multiple investigations of crime and corruption in federal prisons as chairman of the Senate Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations, part of the Senate Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs Committee.

The bipartisan legislation would require the Bureau of Prisons to evaluate and enhance security camera, radio and public address systems at its 122 facilities. The agency must submit a report to Congress within three months detailing deficiencies and a plan to make needed upgrades. Those upgrades are required within three years, and the bureau must submit annual progress reports to lawmakers.

Failing and inadequate security cameras have allowed inmates to escape from federal prisons and hampered investigations. They were an issue in the deaths of gangster James "Whitey" Bulger at a federal prison in West Virginia in 2018 and financier Jeffrey Epstein at a federal jail in New York City in 2019.

Cameras captured inmates going into Bulger's cell, but not the assault that ended his life — due to limitations on how they can be positioned.

In Epstein's case, some cameras malfunctioned while others revealed that guards failed to make some required half-hourly checks, and footage of his apparent suicide attempt a few weeks earlier was lost "as a result of technical errors," prosecutors said.

The House vote came just a day after Ossoff's subcommittee heard testimony from three formerly incarcerated women who said staff abused them in areas of federal prisons that lacked cameras.

The Justice Department's internal watchdog testified that deficiencies with security cameras in federal prisons have compromised investigations into such ills as sexual assault, the introduction of contraband, violations of civil rights and inmate deaths. The inspector general, Michael Horowitz, noted that cameras are also integral to disproving false allegations.

In introducing the camera bill last year, Ossoff said that blind spots, lost footage and technical failures were unacceptable. He said federal prisons "must be cleaned up and held to the highest standards."

The legislation also had the backing of the leaders of the Senate Judiciary Committee — the chairman, Sen. Dick Durbin, D-Ill., and the top Republican, Iowa Sen. Chuck Grassley.
